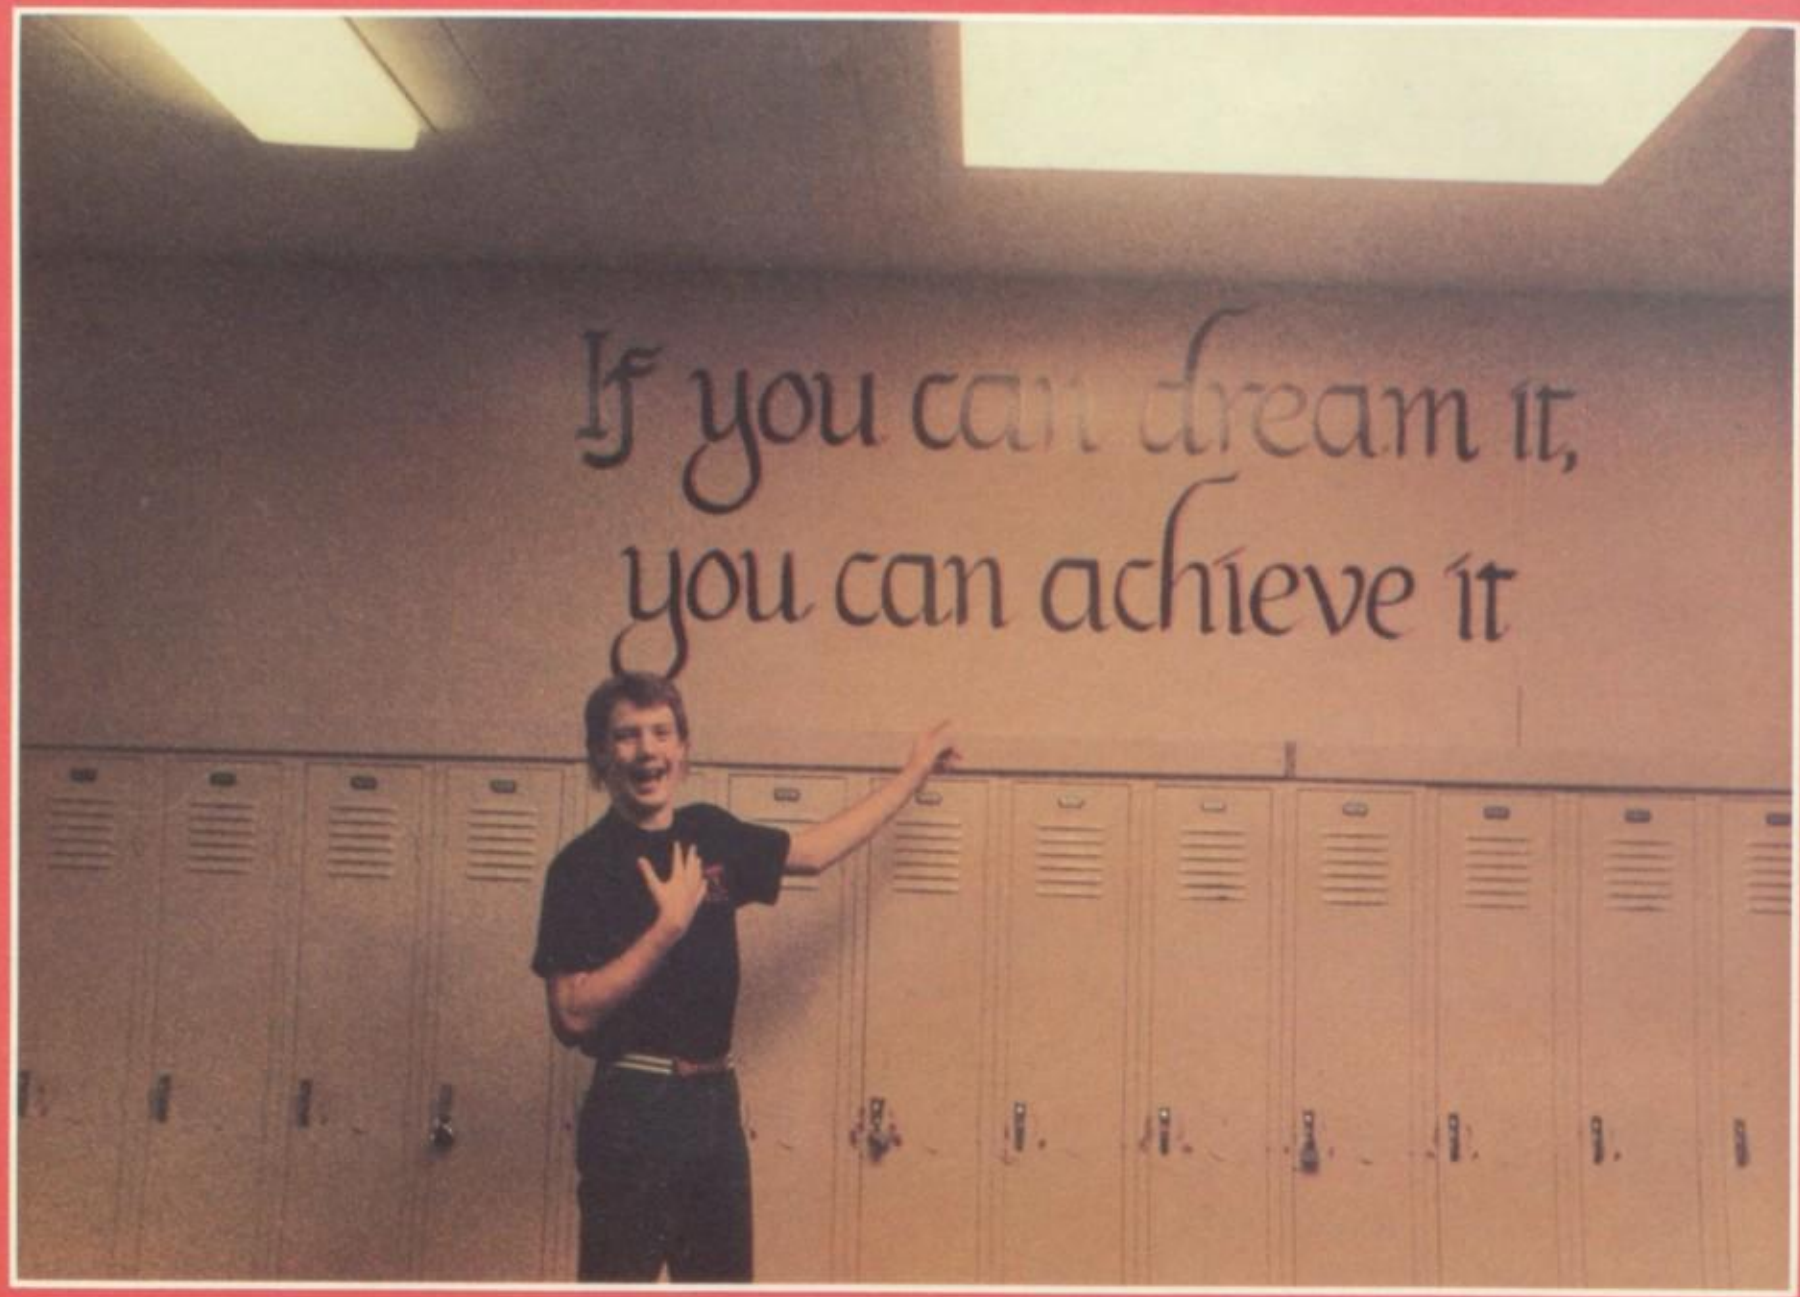
"Together we can make it happen"- There is a growing unity between students and teachers at Corry High. Mrs. Norton helps Beth Brynolfson with a question.

Where it all happens-"Co-High"-The Corry Area High School is a familiar place for approximately 1800 students.

When one stops to think of all the involvement, spirit and unity of our students and teachers, the achievements in sports and curriculum, and the support our town has given us we must agree that Corry High School is definitely SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT!

Something To SHOUT About



A new mode of self-esteem promotions was put forth this year. various phrases promoting self-esteem were painted on all over the school. Hopefully, these signs will affect the rest of the student body as it did Paul Stine.

Our vocational technical school showed what Corry Vo-Tech was all about with their float that was in the Corry 125th parade.

The Prom Of All Proms . . . .

Once Upon A Time

At the stroke of 8:00 p.m. on May 30, the magic began as the school's gymnasium was transformed into a mystical fairyland for the 1986-87 Junior-Senior Prom. The theme: "Once upon a time". The gym came alive with castles and coaches. The music was by disc jockey, Stephen Wade. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Tammy Kolaja, Prom Queen.

The seven members of the court were seniors: Tammy Kolaja escorted by Keith Thomas, Julie Pondel escorted by Brian Quirk, Kelly Capella escorted by Berry Herberg, Sue Riggs escourted by Tom Lathrop,Brenda Lindsey escourted by Doug Gerzina, and Meagan Shotz escorted by Pat Greer, and Sonjia Reese escorted by Brian Hanley.

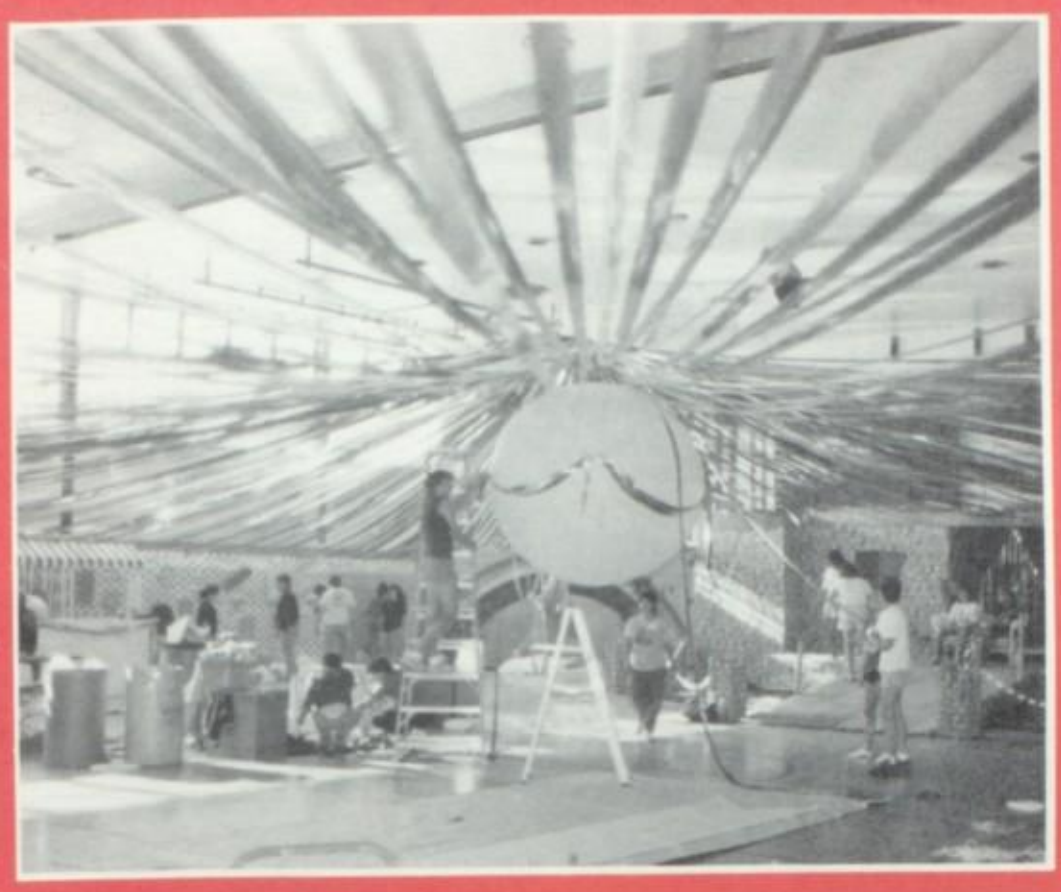
Dancing with their friends, more importantly their dates, the scene was set for a wonderful evening. Fast dancing kept the momentum going. Slow dancing allowed time for the couples to enjoy each others company. And Tom Sawyer was there taking pictures to capture the moment. As the clock struck twelve, the people disappeared

To continue the night there was the Post Prom held at the Elks club. This was set up by the parents. Upstairs there was loud music and dancing. Mr. Benson also had special contests every hour. The winners of his games won gift certificates from local businesses. There was lots of action in the basement, too. It was set up like a gambling casino. The purpose was to earn more fake money to get a prize.

When the evening was over Most people wer just plain exhausted but there were those who had such a great time, they didn't want to leave.

Everyone put their names on the official Builders Ducument.

Downstairs at the Post Prom senior gamblers: Tim Murphy, Shelley Austin, and Rich VanTassel were taking in the BIG BUCKS at the Black Jack table.



The worst part of the Hectic day of decorating for the prom was when the enormous balloon "popped".

The Historical Pageant held on Sheen Field all week was packed every night. One of the skits included Traci Triscuit and Stephanie Matteson doing their aerobic dancing in the 80's.

Clowns were a very important part of the Quas-Qui celebration, keeping the younger generation entertained.

The Rock-A-Thon attracted many watchers and participants. Outlasting many other Rockaholics, Senior Tammy Wood tied for first, rocking A LOT of hours.

Kelly Holthouse, Corrine Lindsey, Kellie Lindsey and Jenny Huffman take a stroll down the street boasting their antediluvian attire.

1861 - 1986 Quas-Qui Centennial

Corry's 125th Birthday!

The year of 1986 was the 125th birthday of Corry. The whole town of Corry took "time-out" during the first week of August to look at the past history of Corry and appreciate what exists today. The Quas Qui gave the people of Corry a special pride in what has happened to Corry in the past and what we ourselves can do to make Corry better.

The streets were packed with people from start to finish of the two and a half hour parade. There were marching bands and floats from Corry and surrounding areas.

The town was filled with people dressed in old-fashioned clothing. Most of the guys wore a beard (some fake) and gals went without make-up to go along with the old-fashioned festivities. They also wanted to avoid being thrown, by the Keystone cops, into the special jail in the city park.

The city park was filled with action during the whole week. After Fine Arts day in the park on Sunday, there was a week-long carnival featuring games and rides and food.

Sheen Field was also filled with action all week long. The Pageant had excellent turnouts. The audience learned about Corry while they enjoyed the shows.

The week was filled with events for everyone.

Monday was Youth Day in City Government. Mayor Ivan Bennink and City Adminstrator Bob Grice introduced high school students to the workings of Corry government.

The "BIG BOOM" was all set for Monday night and people from a thirty mile radius were waiting for the exposion. But because of technical malfunction, the beginning pop was all there was.

On Tuesday was Agriculture Day in Mead Park. There were calves, horses, and llamas in the "Petting Zoo". There was also farm machinery as well as other exhibits.

Wednesday was Sports Day. There were both a golf and tennis tournaments held at North Hills and Mead Park respectively.

Thursday was Industrial Day. The National Guard and many local industrial organizations held exhibits at the Armory.

Friday was Heritage Day. There were several local churches hosting open-houses with historical displays.

According to Mr. Lindsey, a History teacher at Corry, "Many people helped with the celebration, especially the students."

"It was all a very worthwhile event and a great success,"was how Frank Grice, the chairman of the event, described the week.

The Quas Qui Parade, lasting an incredible two and a half hours was a great success with over 200 floats entered. Many Corry High students participated, such as Jason Host shown here.

Senior

Class

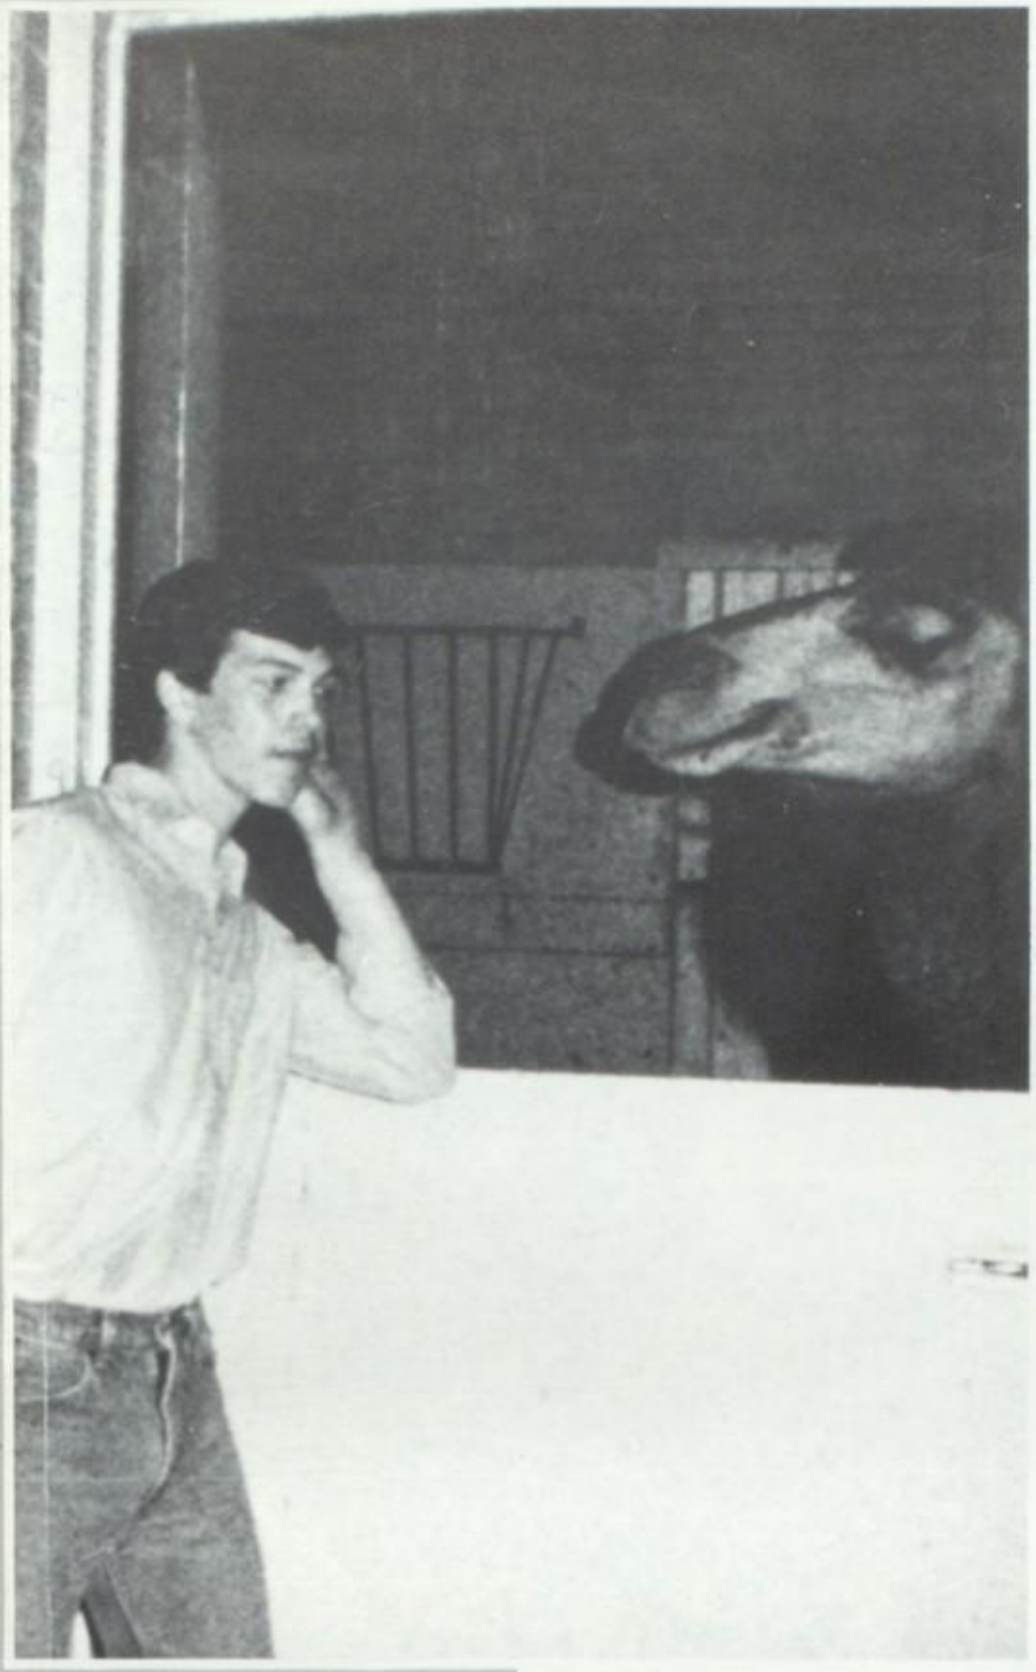
It was quite a scene in the 7th and 8th grade gym cart relays as girls rarely made it around the cones in one piece.

The football cheerleaders always had something different to do each assembly. For the first assembly Charise Berghous shows off a sign she made for the Varsity Football starting line-up.

The football players always kept one thing in mind all day long on fridays . . . football.

Brian Patten and Peter Lemajic didn't seem to appreciate French-or was it just the text books?

Jeannine Saborsky, Margaret Johnson, and Staci Grice didn't think Canadians were so different than Americans as they made friends with one during their class trip.



Familiar Faces In Different Places . .

Getting A Candid Look

There's something truly special about each student at Corry High. They are everywhere! A typical Corry student is involved in several extra-curricular activities. Whether it be working, playing in a sport, or searching for Allah's 100th name, students are always busy. And the uniqueness of the students makes this high school the place to be.

When Woj talks Bill Rhodes listens. Just another typical school scene at the phone as Chris Gerzina calls home to try to get out of school.
Yearbook sales were hot this year, requiring almost half of the staff at the tables during lunch on several days.

Terry Hayes was leading the crowd in the Beaver Hut Drill, Thursday night at the Spirit bonfire.

Kelly Lindsey and Mr. Bennick walking with torches on the football met on the 50 yardline to show the unity of students and faculty.

A Homecoming To Remember . . .

We Can Make It Happen

The 1986 Homecoming started with Spirit Week. Dress-up days kicked off the festivities. Students really liked being able to dress weird. Even the kids that didn't participate liked looking at the ones that did.

Monday was Backwards Day. Students wore their clothes the craziest ways! Some wore their jeans backwards. The order of classes was backwards too.

Tuesday was Punk Day. There was colored hair and off-the-shoulder shirts. Steve Hall wore a leather collar for a necklace.

Wednesday was 50's Day. Guys put grease in their hair. While the girls wore poodle skirts.

Thursday was Sports Day. There were boy-cheerleaders and girl-football players.

Friday was Orange and Black Day. Different shades of orange and black were all over the school.

On Thursday night there was a spirit bonfire. Lancer was burned and everyone got excited about the game.

On Friday there were two assemblies. The first was sponsored by student council. We sang songs and did silly things. Then the King candidates were introduced and Derrick Cross was chosen. The second assembly starred the cheerleaders doing a dance to Nasty, by Janet Jackson. The student body learned against the Corry Spirit.

During halftime at the game the Homecoming court was introduced. Representing the tenth grade were Candi Carrier and Tara Harrington. For the eleventh grade were Jody Krone and Lisa Amoroso. The senior candidates for Queen were Crystal Kreitzbender, Hollie Heibrun, Margaret Johnson, and Penny Parker.

The Proud King Derrick was awaiting to hear who the queen was going to be.

Pat Bova was a real rebel, showing his spirit on Punk Day.

Meet Our Foreign Exchange Students....

Bonjour!

My name is Delphine Russell. I'm a foreign exchange student from France this year. I've been in Corry since July 31, 1986. I'm staying with Paul, Marlene, Laurie, Jenny, Amy and little Wendi Hamilton.

Everyone is very friendly, funny and sociable. The teachers are especially helpful and understanding. Thanks a million Miss Mocello for all you did for me.

I really enjoyed running with the Cross-Country team this year. Corry's team has some fast runners! Mr. Daley is crazy but very nice. Running at states was very exciting!

Being an foreign exchange student is an unforgettable experience and I'll try to visit you again soon. Thank-you all and good luck Beavers in everything!

Love,Delphine

Mei paa dere!

My name is Malin Therese Seivaag, but I go by "Malin." I am from Bodoe, Norway. Bodoe is in the northern part of Norway.

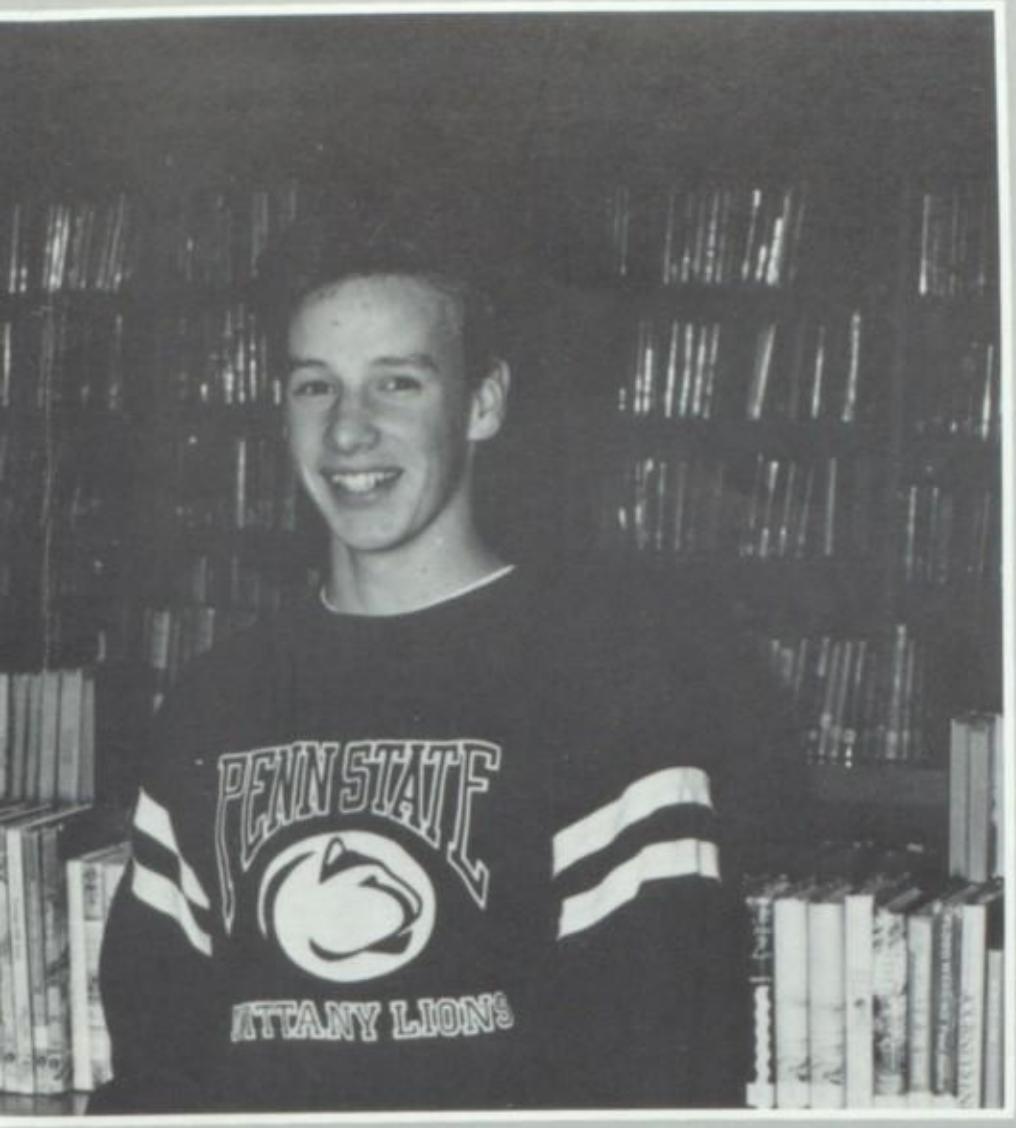
I live two hours above the Arctic Circle, so I have seen snow before. The weather is almost the same as Corry. Our summers are a bit colder and we receive a little more snow.

I came to Corry on August 9, 1986 and I'm staying with David, Jean, Chris, and Jamie Brooks. They and my two other sisters Debbie and Brenda have been so good to me and have been making me feel right at home.

I love your school, its great! I have really enjoyed being here. I'll never forget this wonderful year. You are all welcome to visit my country, anytime.

Vi sees i Norge,

Love, Malin



Moin!

My name is Ulrich Wiehe, call me "Uli" for short. I'm the exchange student from West Germany. Pronouncing my name causes people a lot of trouble, especially for the Cross-Country coach Mr. Daley. He probably still doesn't know how to pronounce it correctly.

The things that I like the most here so far are riding home in your funny school buses, pep assemblies, dances and watching the football games, especially away when Corry won.

I want to thank the Hendersons' again, who've been a wonderful host family. They are a big reason that I've enjoyed my stay here so much.

Don't forget to visit me in Germany, whenever you get a chance to come to Europe. Thanks for everything and making this a great year, that I will never forget!

Love, Uli

Que tal?

My name is Carolina Angarita and I'm an exchange student this year at Corry Area High School. I'm from Cucuto, Columbia. I'm staying with George and Jean Fox. They've been so understanding and made me feel right at home.

I just love all the different activities you have to offer like football games, the homecoming celebration, pep assemblies and basketball games. Everyone has much of that Corry spirit, it's super!

I've enjoyed my stay here in Corry very much. You've all been wonderful to me. I've made many friends here and I will miss them all very much. It's been a great year that I will never forget. Thanks for everything.

Hasta la vista, Carolina

"Everyone is very friendly, funny and sociable...I soon discovered that the best place for my foreign exchange year is Corry, PA.

Delphine Russell

"I love the football games...to me it looked like a bunch of guys trying to kill each other and never making it."

Malin Seivaag

"I'll miss all my friends here...I don't even want to think about going home."

Uli Wiehe

"The band is super! They play such great music and show so much enthusiasm. My heart always beats faster when they start to play."

Those Who Dared To Be Different . . .

Where Are They Now?

Dr. Ethel E. Ewing Among the Corry people who "dared to do something extra" is Ethel Ewing Ph.D, authur of a high school textbook and a college professor. The book "Our Widening World: a History of the World's Peoples" was used widely , until the recent reorganization of high school curriculums. Dr. Ewing's textbook was used for many years at the Corry High School.

"The path," Dr.Ewing says, "began with good teachers and other school leaders in Corry." This influenced her choices of teaching as her work. She recalls her parents advice: "Get the best education you can for whatever work you decide to do." In 1924, leaving for Muskingum College was a big step at a time when few girls went away to college.

Professor Ewing now resides in Meadville, after completing a satisfying and successful career.

Tom Mowrey After graduating from Corry High School, Tom entered the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. Since he has been graduated from Eastman he has made a career as a record producer. He started his career at Vox Records.

Tom was a producer for the Germany Company called Deutche Grammophon, both in the U.S. and in Germany. He lived in London and was producer their for Deua London Records. Tom has been a freelance producer in New York City since 1980, and has produced for CBS Masterworks. He won a Grammy Award for producing "Carmen," at the Metropolitan Opera with Leornard Bernstein conducting. Tom was producer of Wynton Marsalis' Grammy Award winning first classical record.

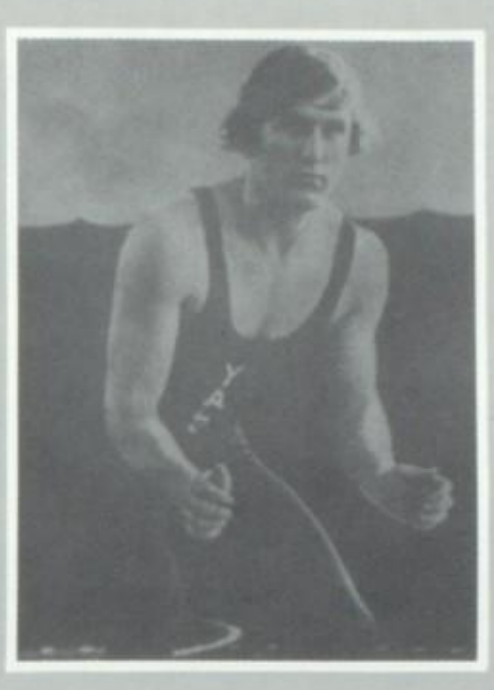
She then decided to embark upon a careeer in the Marine Corps. She was eventually transferred to Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps in Washington D.C., and is presently serving as Assistant Head of Publications and Printing Branch, Headquarters Support Division.

Dr. Mary Ann Kibler Dr. Mary Ann Kibler Md. came to Corry in 1926 to work as the office nurse for Dr. C.B.Kibler amd his son John Kibler. Mary Ann eventually married Dr.John Kibler, and after his death in 1951 she attended Villa Maria College in Erie. At Villa Maria, Mary received her Bachelor of Science Degree, and later received her Medical Doctor's Degree.

Mexico City. In 1972 Dr. Kibler became the first woman mayor of Corry. She was honored Woman of the Year in 1975 from Villa Maria College. Mary is also a member of the International Academy of Biology Medicine and is also a popular speaker on Nutrition and Stress. At present, she is practing in Corry as a consultant in health and medicine.

In 1984 Dr. Kibler recieved a letter of commendation for her many years in the medical field from the Presidsent and Mrs. Reagan.



James Bennett James Bennett is considered the ultimate Corry High School athlete because he is the first Corry athlete ever to win state honors in a major sport, three years in a row. He also won pole vault in 1971-72 at Penn State Junior Olmpics.

At Yale University Jim won the NCAA national championship in 1975 and received other awards as well. At Yale University he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in economics and Russian studies in 1976, and worked for two years for Price Waterhouse in New York City, where he received his certified public accountant degree.

Jim attended Harvard Business School, where he earned his Masters degree in Business Administration in 1980.

Since that time he has been recently promoted to assistant vice-president with the firm of Kidder, Peabody and Company, Inc. in New York City, where he received his brokers license while working there.

After graduation from Corry High School, Linda furthered her education at Indiana University, and Elizabethtown College, majoring in Music Education with a concentration in Piano and Voice. She then attended Temple University and the Peabody Conservatory of Music, for her post graduate degree.

Experiencing a date with Mark. Mark shares his many dating dilemmas on the road and in the theatre.

You are Unique! Mark sends messages of self-pride to all the Corry students. He spent all of his time raising Corry spirit.

"Learning to love yourself is the greatest love of all! Members of the Senior High Chorus show their self-pride during their performance.

Mark rests for a moment after an energetic preformance. He is moved by the chorus' presentation of "The Greatest Love of all."

"The Greatest Days Of Your Life . . . So Far"

Mark Scharenbroich

On December 11, 1986, Mark Scharenbroich was invited to give a presentation at Corry High School to the entire student body including student councils from Union City and other area schools. His message was simple, yet penetrating, "You are one of a kind and a worthwhile person."

The psychology and sociology students may remember Mark's films, "One of a Kind" and "The Greatest Days of Your Life.....So Far," from their classes with Mr. Gruca, Mr. Klapthor and Mrs. Mikesell.

Mark Scharenbroich arrived early that morning in order to speak with the teachers and the administration. A few hours later, he made his presentation to grades 7-12. Then he met with students for about an hour, and afterwards, held a leadership workshop for the students. That evening Mark presented his message to the public in the school auditorium. During each of his performances, he was able to capture the attention of everyone in the audience. Many of Mark's allusions to teenage years and life in general pleased the crowds overall, because they hit so close to home.

An effort was made by all to welcome Mark to our school. Over 25 signs and posters from various groups and homerooms were splashed across almost every wall in the school. One sign in particular was unique in itself because every student in the school signed it. The sign was posted in the gym were the student body presentation was held. Mark felt that this sign was "GREAT", because it made everyone feel like somebody special.

Mark said that he was given more attention and gifts at Corry, than any other place he had ever visited before.

At the end of the presentation , the "SCHOOL KEY" was presented to Mark, by the Student Council officers. He also received a "Beaver" blanket, sweat shirt and hat, from the Psycology and Sociology students.

Due to everyone's enthusiasm and hard work, the day was a huge success. Hopefully, everyone that was present will remember Mark's message, "YOU ARE ONE OF A KIND AND A WORTHWHILE PERSON!"

A moment with a student. Many students were able to socialize with Mark during his visit.

Picture 1-Christmas with my German family in Oldenburg, West Germany. Picture 2-Christmas day dinner with my host family. Picture 3-My house in Oldenburg, West Germany.

My year in West Germany as an exchange student is a year that I will never forget. I learned so many things about myself and the world around me.

I lived in Bonn, the capital of West Germany for the first month of my year. In Bonn, I went to language school five days a week. Along with ten other Americans, I had two native Germans who taught me basic German vocabulary and grammar.

My host family in Bonn was very generous and interesting. I had two host brothers; Stefan and Henning. My host mother was a house wife and my host father worked at a Procter & Gamble plant. Living in a small house, they didn't have room to keep me for the whole year.

I moved to a new family in a town called Vechta. Things didn't work out, so I moved again. I moved the third time to a wonderful family in Oldenburg, West Germany. They are wonderful people and I couldn't have ever asked for anything better.

I had one host-sister, Frauke. She was about my age, but a lot taller than I am. We went to school together and spent a lot of time together.

My host mother, Hildegard, was so caring. She worked as a housewife and worked part time as a bookeeper for a small firm. She was a super cook and I always enjoyed her food. Her hobby was knitting. She made beautiful things.

My host father, "Kally", was a very jovial person. He was always telling jokes and teasing me about something. My host father's retired now, but used to be a teacher at a merchant marines school . He loved working with electronic devices, especially his HAM-radio.

My host family had one son, Karsten who is 18 years old. He spent the year in Ohio as an exchange student. I used his room. He came home a few days before I left. Karsten takes beautiful pictures. He was an excellent photographer and liked to develop his own film.

I went to school with my sister six days a week. I had 12 different subjects which I took. School was different at first, but after I learned more German, it became much easier. The school day lasted from about 8:00 to 1:30. I was in a class with about 20 other students. In West Germany, the school system is different. We stayed in the same classroom for most of the day. The teacher came to us with the exception of Chemistry, Physics, and gym.

On the weekends and in my free time I had many hobbies and activities. I learned to knit from my host mother. Now granted I knit only simple things but I enjoyed learning. I rode a bicycle a lot in my free time. When the weather was nice we took family bike rides. I also went to the movies a lot with Frauke. On weekends, we sometimes went to the discos. I really enjoyed going there because it was a new activity.

All and all my year in Germany was super! I'd like to thank everyone who helped me. Thanks so much for your support and love. I really appreciate it. You're all special people.

CONGRATULATIONS AMY!!!

Unlike many of our exchange students, Amy Henderson participated in a new program; The Congress Bundestag Youth Exchange. This is a government sponsored program which is highly competitive. At the recommendation of her German teacher, Amy completed the necessary essay and personal interviews and was finally chosen to represent Tom Ridge's congressional district. Amy's year in Oldenburg, Germany was sucessful and rewarding. Since only 436 students nationwide have received this distinguished scholarship, we at Corry are very PROUD of this accomplishment.

FLUTIST, KYRA KESTER

This page of our yearbook is being devoted to senior, Kyra Kester. Kyra not only excels academically, but is one of the most gifted and talented students ever to attend Corry High School.

She began playing the flute at age eight. In those ten years, Kyra has played many public performances and concerts.

In addition to being a member of the marching and concert band, she has participated in the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association district and regional band and district and regional orchestra.

Kyra has been a member of the Gannon University Flute Choir for six years and the Erie Philharmonec Youth Orchestra for four years. She holds the position of principal flutist in both organizations.

Over the years, Kyra has entered and won numerous competitions. The most recent, the 1987 Music Teachers National Association High School Audition Competition on the state level. In 1986, she was first runner-up in that same competition on the national level after winning the local, state, and decisions. First place in the Erie Music Teachers Association Scholarship Competition, Junior Division, was awarded to Kyra in 1984.

This year, Kyra was nominated to McDonald's All American High School Marching Band. She also evtered the Arts Recognition and Talent Search out of Miami, Florida.

In 1986, Kyra was selected to "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

Other music activities she has been involved in include the summer music program at Chauauqua Institution, McDonald's All Eric County Band, Corry Community Summer Band, Erie Philharmonic Youth Orchestra Woodwind Ensemble, several Master Classes and many solo performances.

In the fall, Kyra will be entering a Conservatory to further her studies in the area of music performance.

We are proud that Kyra is a student at our school and we salute her and her many accomplishments and wish her continued success for the future.

LIFE AS A SEVENTH GRADER

—From a sixth grade HERO to a seventh grade unknown
—Thinking school is a prison and it will never end
—Missing that noon recess and longer lunch period
—Not understanding why the next room after Room 36 is Room 201 —Wondering how tall Mr. Fox really is —always getting lost while trying to find your next class
—Wishing you were bigger —Actually being in the same school with the Football Team
—Walking miles between classes, with the feeling that the Halls are never going to come to an end
—Girls going crazy over seeing Senior Dan Mitchell
—Too tall lockers for two short legs
—Missing your nice kind elementary Teachers
—Moving from room to room for each class and never knowing quite where you should sit —Wondering why your voice is higher than everyone elses
—Trying to understand why I should be HAPPY that Miss Hill isn't teaching here any more
—Trying to understand why we have to carry all our books

Vo-Tech Auto Body students killed two birds with one stone by not only gaining experience from working on cars, but also doing a favor for the owners.

Something To Shout About

One of the many activities of the Vo-Tech students is repairing farm machinery. Melvin Smollek has done an excellent job on the tractor.

AGRICULTURE

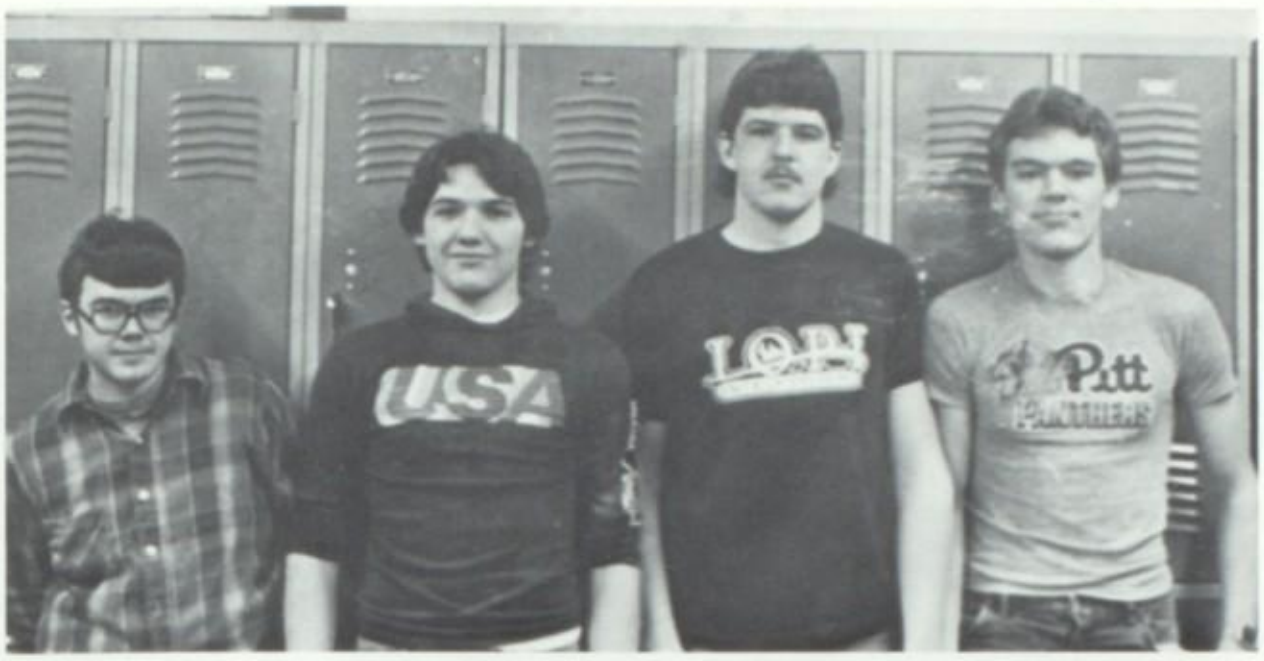
The Vo-Tech Agriculture program includes training in a variety of areas. These students work in the greenhouses, nurseries and garden centers. Students also study principles and processes dealing with the maintenance and repair of farm equipment; such as small gasoline engines, farm tractors and other power tools. Also included are the many varied non-powered implements used on the farm. Basic carpentry and welding skills are also taught.

Row 1-Jeff Munn, Paul Fox, Larry Ploss, Willis Proctor and Earl Schweitzer. Row 2-Bill Mongomery, Dale Slye, Melvin Schmitt, Bill Moyer, Vera Hilbert, Theresa Titch and Greg Ingram.

VICA- the Vocational Industrial Clubs of American has been active at the Corry Vo-Tech School for several years and has allowed many Corry students to win local and State Vocational Awards.

This club which was established to unite all students in a common purpose. The students enrolled in trade, industrial, technical and health education classes. The moto for VICA is "Preparing for Leadership in the World of Work." Students choose if they want to be in VICA. Members pay

Auto Body



Auto Body Row 1-Dan Edwards, Duane Niemyer, Tim Rugar, Chuck Derby.

The Auto Body repairs course includes removing of dents, repairing damaged panels, replacing parts, refinishing spot repairs, reupholstering the inside of a car, and installing accessories. The students receive additional learning experiences on specialized machines. These experienes give the students an added advantage when the graduate. They already have experience which is sometimes the difference of getting or not getting a job.

A competition was recently held at the Corry Vo-Tech School. Students from Corry and Union

City competed against each other. The students were judged on their ability ingenuity. Students were given awards for first, second and third places.

Auto Mechanics

Auto Mechanics (AM): Row 1- Chris Frontera, Bill Hanel, Shwn Fuller, Scott Toplovich Row 2- Joel Austin, Brian Campbell, Chip Shriver, Gary Silka

Students in the Auto Mechanics gain skills that are neccessary to get a job as a mechanic or something similar. During the course the students have the opportunity to work on their own vehicles. This gives them the self-satisfaction of completing something for themselves. They also fix vehicles for their teachers and the public in general. Approximately 55 percent of the students which take Auto Mechanics go on to a job related field.

Auto Mechanics (PM): Row 1- Jody Babcock, Jeff Miller, Doug Bimber, John Silka, Cory Turban, Brad McCray. Row 2- Dave Wingard, Bob Nichols, Shawn Northrop, Lou Horvath, Rich Goodwill, Charley Weaver, Larry Hamilton.

In Auto Mechanics, about ten guys competed against each other. They were tested in many different areas. Each area had a different judge and each student moved from section to section. The competition was very close, but only three people were given places.

Doug Bimber got first place. Brad McCray received second place. Scott Toplovich aquired third place.

The students who were in health assistant were judged on appearance, amount of time it took to complete a project, and if they knew the material they were questioned on. They also gave a table subject, amount of time it took for speech, and the content of the speech. After the competition was over the judges tallied their points. The only girl from Corry who placed in the top three was Stephanie Halfast and she placed first. Mr. Cragg is a graduate of Corry. While he was in high school, he played football. He then went to college at Slippery Rock University. After he graduated, he decided to return to Corry to teach and to coach (see picture).

During the 36 years he has been here, he has coached football, bsketball, and track and has liked it very much. He thinks that "Corry has a fine student body, but many people do not realize what a good student body we have until teachers from different schools talk about their students."

Mrs. Hanley graduated from Slippery Rock College before she started teaching. Mrs. Hanley started teaching at Townville, which is now Maplewood. She has been teaching for fourteen years at Corry.

Mrs. Hanley has coached or helped with volleyball, track, basketball, co-ed volleyball and the jump-a-thon. While coaching these sports she has been able to meet a lot of students and she believes, "There is a wide range of personalities in our school."

One of her most memorable moments is of the year the volleyball team won the league championship. The Corry Journal published a full page spread on the team. Another thing that stands out in her mind is that two or three of her former volleyball players went into the service acadamies and became outstanding atheletes.

For all the coaching and teaching you have done for the student body at Corry, Mrs. Hanley, WE THANK YOU!

Mrs Hooven has taught English, Reading, and History at Corry High School over a period of 24 years. She also taught at Beatty High in Warren. She decided to teach at Corry 12 years after she moved here. She said, "I started to teach again because I wanted to and felt I just had to." She also said that the excellent student body is what keeps her here.

When Mrs Hooven first came to Corry, the teachers had to read ten verses from the Bible, say the Lord's prayer, and salute the flag every morning. Her first day of teaching she was scared that she would talk above the students' level of understanding. After she read the ten verses from the Bible, she started out the prayer by saying: "Now I lay me down to sleep..." This day will stay in her mind forever.

For all you have done to make our school more productive, Mrs.Hooven, WE THANK YOU!

Mrs. Gernovich attended college at Ohio State University and at Edinboro. Before she came to Corry, Mrs. Gernovich taught at several private schools. When her family moved to Corry, she decided to teach here. She has been teaching for seven years at Corry. Mrs. Gernovich feels that "she has never met a student body that has been more willing to work to make things happen."

Mrs. Gernovich has been involved in the IMPACT program, the Curriculum Council,and the Steering Committee; she helps run the concession stand and is the advisor for the Good Earthlings. Mrs. Gernovich is in many activities and she loves it!

One of her most memorable momements is of one of her former students; she had difficulty with him, but he came back and thanked her for helping him.

Mr. Rairie came to Corry 33 years ago after receiving his bachelor's degree from Penn State and his master's degree from Edinboro. When Mr. Rairie graduated, his advisor told him about a job opening in Corry. Mr. Rairie applied for the job, got it, and has been at Corry ever since.

Mr. Rairie has enjoyed being at Corry very much. He has also enjoyed the student body of Corry and as he says, "It (the student body) is what keeps me here."

One of the moments Mr. Rairie remembers the most is that of the Concert Band playing in a competition at the Warren County Fair. In the middle of a number the audience stood and applauded until the number was finished. It was special because this was the only time this has happened.

A Time To Remember

Almost ready to go, I sit down on my bed and slip on my REEBOKS. Looking around my room of poster-filled walls, I think back to some of the fun times of this past year.

Gazing at a poster of TOM CRUISE, I recall many great movies I have seen during this year. TOP GUN and IRON EAGLE were definitely the best. Then there was FERRIS BUELLEPS DAY OFF, it kept me laughing during times I thought I would never live through- all the pressures from school, home and work. Somedays I felt as if I was living in a horror show. Speaking of horror, did you happen to see Aliens II or NIGHTMARE ON ELM STREET PARTS 2 and 3?

At the foot of my bed, lay two piles of clothes. Mom insists that my room stay clean, because she spent her entire day off cleaning it for me, so I had better put them away before I leave. I pick up my GUESS jeans and my old LEVIS and throw them in the bottom drawer of dresser. I grab a few hangers for my COCA-COLA shirt, my FORENZA sweater and my SUSPENDERS.

I walk over to shut of my television, but wait! There is BON JOVI, they are playing my favoite song, LIVING ON A PRAYER! I have to watch this one! I think back to the DAVID LEE ROTH concert, what a blast! I remember all the hit songs from this year from WHITNEY HOUSTON to VANHALEN. And of course, the number one song of 1986 FRIENDS.

I slide on my SUNGLASSES, shut off MTV, and head out the door. In my JAMS and old t-shirt, I am all set for the last day of school.

C.Y.E.A. And T.A.D.A.

Two Clubs Formed to Help Others

Corry Youth Education Assosiation, CYEA, has been very active this year. During American Education Week, they baked apple-shaped cookies for every teacher in the entire Corry Area School District and made wooden apple keychains for the teachers at the high school. Every month CYEA members visit the Corry Maner and socialize with the senior citizens.

Teenagers Against Drug Abuse, TADA, has also participated in many activities. Members have made anti-drug abuse posters and a best slogan contest. The most original slogan was "Drug Use Means-Health Abuse." They also participated in a weeklong program titled "IMPACT". It taught them symptoms of drug abuse and how to councel drug abusers and their parents.

Senior High Student Council

Teachers And Students . . . Together We Can Make It Happen

Mrs. Mikesell and Mrs. Jordan are the energetic and dedicated advisors for the Senior High Student Council. In their opinion, the 1986-87 Student Council is comprised of "a fantastic group of kids who are really willing to work and who are interested in improving the entire school."

The election for the officers this year were very unique. For the first time, Corry High used election booths .

Student Council has been very productive this year. One of it's achievements is the newly formed, "Members at Large". This allows anyone who wishes to be on Student Council to become a member if they meet the requirements. They must write an essay, have at least ten students sign a petition, and they must be accepted by the members of Student Council. Randy Stultz and Pat Bova are the first to become members this way.

An important achievement is the showcase that was built in memory of Dennis McEldowney and other students who have passed away.

On December 6th, they sponsored a dance. The theme was "Christmas in the Caribbean." Many students really got into the spirit of the occasion and dressed in "Jams." Most even had their picture taken with Santa Claus.

All in all Student Council had an exciting and productive year. Through the efforts of the members, many activities were arranged for the pleasure of the student body.

The Student Council would like to thank the student body and faculty for their support. Without it would not be possible to promote the magnitude of school spirit we have here at Corry.

The 1986-87 Yearbook Staff

Dedicated, And Hardworking Students

This years 1986-87 Corrian staff began work March '86 to prepare one of the largest books in Erie County. Few students realize what these students went through in putting together the 1987 Corrian. These students voluntarily gave up many hours of free time to create a better yearbook. Their dedication was put forth in order to make this book the best book that Corry has ever seen and ever will seen.

Chief editors this year were Scott Hornick and Julee McQuiston. They were assisted by Kelly Williams, Leigh Smith, Anna Baccus, and Tammy Slye as sections editors. Special thanks ahould be given to the seventh period yearbook class and other staff members. Also Thanks to Mr. Woj who pitched-in when our advisor was out of school due to illness. We appreciated our Josten's representative, Mr. Initihar, who helped keep our attitudes up at trying times. Most of all, we would like to thank Mr. Wilson, because he was always there for us and helped a lot with making every deadline.

A new addition to our staff this year was an Apple Computer which will greatly aid in manufacturing the yearbook. Corry is one of the first staffs in Northwestern Pennsylvania to automate their book. In closing we hope you enjoy our book.....

Seventh period took on the brunt of task of putting together the yearbook, copywriting, layouts, and photography. One of these workaholics is Dori Alsdorf.

"Laying out" pages for the yearbook takes creativity and patience, as demonstrated by Leigh Smith and Dori Alsdorf.

The recent installment of an Apple Computer has tremendously aided in the production of the yearbook this year. Anna Baccus, copy editor, is in charge of the computer.

According to Mrs. Gernovich, "The Good Earthlings group is the neatest organization to sponsor." Ms. Grinder, Mrs. Kacpura, and Mrs. Bossert help Mrs. Gernovich with the students.

There are special activities. On December 12th, 1986, they had their annual Christmas Candlelight Dinner and Dance. At the end of the year, they embark on a camping trip with the money that they raised. One time they went to Virginia Beach on the Atlantic Ocean.

The club is for beginners and experts alike. Mr. Potocki can teach you the game or help you improve it. Mr. Potocki makes it a point to play everyone at least once to challenge their skill. The Chess Club does not attend tournaments as a team, because it's too expensive. Instead, they have tournaments within the club. Some members even go to tournaments by themselves.

SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT

Sweeping the count in competition, the Corry Area High School Marching Band put on an awesome show.

Kristen Lloyd is a prime example of Corry's fine talent in music; playing since her childhood. She really enjoys the piano.

SHOWING CORRY BEAVER PRIDE . . . . .

The 1986-87 marching band shows pride in action. The band actually started preparing for their marching season in the middle of July. They had to get ready for parades and prepare their music for the halftime show.

MARCHING FOR VICTORY!!

The band who worked together came out victorious! The 101 member band is made up of 73 musicians, 18 silks, and 10 majorettes. The marching season was about three months long. They started preparing in July and ended their successful season in October. In August the band goes to band camp for one week to learn their halftime show. Graduates and students from I.U.P. college band go to the camp to help Corry band improve skills. The band is made up of students in grades 9-12. The band represents Corry in football games and band competitions.

The marching band marches to victory --- The band is shown here marching in one of their competitions. In a competition the pressure is on. Every one must remember the drill and march together!!!

"Okay . . . . . let's take it from the top just one more time."

Mr. Rairie
Band Director

The band also represented our school in Disney World in Florida, and in the Mardi Gra located in New Orleans. This year the Beaver band performed at five marching competitions. At these competitions the band competes with other bands who are the same in size. The band is expected to perform for eight to ten minutes. During this time there are judges who evaluate their performance.

In addition to the halftime performances the band marched in two parades this season. In August the Quas Qui parade in Corry. Also, the spartansburg parade in September.

THE GOAL IS SUCCESS . . .

The concert number for the halftime show focused on the trombone section. They were center on the 50 yard line and let the music flow while they entertained the crowd. This number was a favorite with the crowd. The crowd went wild while the band played and showed their talent as dancers on the football field.

The majorettes who were famous for their "jazz step" added a special touch to the band by twirling their batons.

This year's co-captains for the silk team were Kelly Ball and Lori Schweitzer, These two girls were expected assist the other girls throughout the marching season. They had a lot of pressure but they pulled through with success!

Marching also includes performing in parades. The band plays, majorettes twirl, silks twirl, and the large crowd smiles. The band enjoys entertaining and the smiles show that the crowd is pleased.

TIME AND TALENT FOR SUCCESS!!!

The co-captains for the majorettes this season were Kristi Hiner, and Kim Shephard. These girls made up a lot of their routines.

Corry Music Boosters

It actually takes years of preporation to be in the marching band. Most of the students start lissons for their instruments in fourth grade. They continue playing until ninth grade when they can join the band. Many of the students may start out on one instrument but then switch to a different one in high school. All of the girls in the color guard are required to try out in order to join the band. The band is a great experience, Congratulations to the band and everyone who helped!

SENIOR HIGH CHORUS

Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Brunswick, includes tenth, eleventh, and twelth grade singers. The chorus is made up of four sectional groups. Each chorus member sings in the soprano, alto, tenor, or bass according to their singing ability.

They have two concerts each year for the public. KThe prepared music is used in the Christmas concert and in the Spring Concert. Senior High Chorus sings a variety of music such as secular, Latin, contemperary, and Christmas music. Each student is graded according to participation, attitude, and discipline. The chorus also sings in honor of the seniors at Baccalaureate also. This year District II Chorus was held in Tidioute, Pa, February 4-7. Margaret Johnson (Soprano I), Amy Beckwith (Soprano II), Kristen Lloyd (Alto I), Becky Kuzma (Alto II), Mark Shettler (Tenor II), and Jim Lansberry (Bass II) represented Corry High. While these students were at Districts they tried out for Regional Chorus held in April. Becky Kuzma, Mark Shettler, and Jim Lansberry were successful in being honored to go to Regional Chorus. Each student involved in chorus has a chance to perform and reach out to others.

"Singing makes me want to express my feelings to other people."

Many hours of practice are required to get a good base to build on. Each girl works on putting their knowledge of notes and words together for the final product.

Chorus isn't always as easy as it may seem. Getting the notes right and trying to get a pleasant sound can often be a challenge.

9TH GRADE CHORUS

The ninth grade chorus is under the direction of Mr. Brunswick. This chorus is an all girl chorus. The ninth graders put on two public concerts each year. One Christmas concert and one in the Spring of the year. Each girl sings in either the soprano or the alto section. They sing in one of these sections according to their voice range.

The girls are graded on participation. All of the people involved in chorus enjoy performing. These students are able to take an elective course that they also enjoy as a hobby.

"Music is a universal language understood by everyone."

SENIOR HIGH CONCERT BAND

Many Students of the Corry Area High School are involved in the music program. All of these students have a common interest and choose to express their talent through music. The music ranges from contemperary, jazz, and some classical arrangements. Since music is such a popular type of entertainment, Corry should feel honored to have so many talented and ambitious students involved in music.

The Senior High Concert Band involves students in grades nine to twelve. Most of these students have been playing their instrument since about fourth grade. They began in elementary to learn the basic skills required. Then they were in Junior High Band. It's actually a bridge between two different levels, elementary and Senior High Band. In Junior High the band students work to improve their skills in preparation for Senior High Band. Once a student reaches the Senior High level in band they combine everything they have learned and try to perform with a high quality. A great deal of practice and work goes into learning a musical instrument. After learning more of music these students of the Senior High Concert Band have a greater appreciation for music itself.

"Without music life would be a dreary place, indeed."

SENIOR HIGH CONCERT BAND

The Senior High Concert Band works together to create the universal language of music. During the 27 week course of concert band, the students learn many different arrangements. After learning their music the students preform a concert under the direction of Mr. Rairie. Because the Marching Band's trip to New Orleans was a conflict with the schedule the concert only performed at one Spring Concert held for the public. At this concert the band shows their ability to perform music.

Although all the students express their talent, there are some students who excell above the average level. A Senior High District Band Festival is held every year at a surrounding school. Students in in grades ten to twelve may apply for the honor of being a part of this mid-winter festival. A panel of judges choose approximately six applicants from each school. The representatives for Corry this year were Kelli Sherwood-tuba, Kyra Kester-flute, John Taylor- trombone, Becky Kuzma-trumpet, Dean Sproveri-clairnet, and Marlene Hatch-alto clairnet. By scoring high at districts a student may advance. This year Kyra advanced to the Region Band in St. Marys.

"Music is a comon ground, on which all of us meet."

-a teacher

8TH GRADE CHORUS

Forty-eight singing voices make up the eighth grade chorus. Both boys and girls participate in chorus. All of the students have a common interest in music.

Mrs. Jaynes is the dedicated teacher of the Jr. High Chorus. She spends a great deal of time teaching skills necessary for chorus, arranging concerts and directing the annual musical.

Each year the Jr. High students put on a musical production during the second semester. Mrs. Jaynes and her students spend weeks preparing their stage production. Mrs. Jaynes enjoys doing a musical because she feels it allows all members to have an opportunity to work with choreography and acting skills.

"Chorus gets us actively involved with the Arts."

There are fifty-five active singers in the seventh grade chorus. All of those boys and girls have the option to participate in chorus which is taught by Mrs. Jaynes.

The chorus puts on two concerts during each school year. One concert is a Christmas Concert in mid-December. Then in the spring another concert is put on for the public. Each student also participates in the annual musical along with the eighth grade chorus.

The day to day classroom activities are in developing rhythm, vocal skills, understanding basic music theory, and performance skills. Each student in the seventh grade chorus has a unique experience to express their talent.

"Chorus allows us to express ourselves."

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

This year the Corry Junior High Band performed one concert in the spring for the public. When putting on a concert the students show the audience how they interpret music and demonstrate what they have learned. all of the students strive to improve their instrumental ability as they look to the musical road ahead.

Each year a Junior High District Band festival is held at a different school within the district each year. Students in grade seven to nine may apply. A panel of judges choose about six applicants from each school. This year students from Corry represented our school at the Junior High Districts held at Eisenhower School. It takes a lot to excell in music and each student should be commended for their excellent work.

"Keep playing music, it's the voice of the Gods."

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

The Junior High Band has many students who are determined to build on their musical knowledge. The Junior High level is actually the bridge between learning the basic skills of an instrument and applying all their skill in the Senior High Band. Many hours of practice and work go tovard improving each student's ability to play their instrument.

Students in grades seven and eight play in the Junior High Band. It is a year long course which involves building on what they have already learned. Mr. Rairie is the director. He feels that music is a very important part of every day life and the students of the band. They display a common interest in a world of music.

It is a tradition for the seniors to have a Toga Party on Thursday evening.

AUGUST 10-16
BAND CAMP '86

Silently, we stand in our own world
Brasses gleaming brightly, silks unfurled
No emotion showing, but our pride
Endlessly is burning deep inside
"Corry Marching Band, the feild is yours"
With these words, our confidence just soars
We look up and see each anxious face
We will do our best with perfect grace
Music flows unto the spellbound crowd
Sometimes quiet, sometimes very loud
Every note and step comes from the heart
Working together, not apart
Everything has to be synchronized
We must keep the people mesmorized
When the final chord drifts through the night
We all wonder if we did the alright
Then we see the crowd begin to stand
As they all applaud our Marching Band
When it's time to see how we have done
We all join our hands and become one
Then intensity begins to build
Every heart with hope is filled
Everyone of us begins to cheer
As the big announcement becomes clear
Then our eyes with our true rivals meet
And we see their hurt look of defeat
No words can explain the saddened eyes
But we know the judges tell no lies
Then announcing, First place Corry High
We all hug and scream and even cry
It seems that our show had just begun
Now we are triumphant, number one
We are like a family, and we stand
Proudly 'cause we're the CORRY MARCHING BAND!!!

"A good band practices!"

Boys excell in all events,

Utegg and Saborsky to States.

Strong on the Run

The boy's track team did a terrific job in 1986. The most exciting meet was Districts. Coach Correll said, "Most of our athletes point to this meet because if you win your event or exceed the state minimum standard you qualify for states." The attitudes and the willingness of the athletes and also the desire to achieve their goal were just some of the qualities that made our team super.

The practices helped the team a lot. They were designed to meet each individual's needs. A month of basic conditioning came first, then the squad is divided into specific event groups for specific workouts. The guys enjoyed the practices but most thought, "they could have been a little harder." All of their practicing paid off because many of our guys qualified for Districts.

While at Districts, the Beavers did an outstanding job. Les Utegg was 1st in the Javelin and 3rd in the high hurdles. Bill Saborsky was 1st in the 800 meter run. Saborsky, Scott Hornick, Steve Platt, and Brain Quirk were 2nd in the 3200 relay, and Doug Gerzina was 3rd in the Javelin.

The team was proud of their season and look forward to another great season in '87. Their team spirit really showed. Great job team!

Striving for Perfection

The girl's track team completed one of its most sucessful seasons. During the dual meets, the girls finished the season undefeated. They were strong in every event. The Corry girls put forth their 'maximum' effort to capture second place at the County Championship.

Several girls went to States. They were Missy Woodworth, Leigh Ann Mitchell, Sandy Platt, and Robin Curtis in the 3200 meter relay. Missy Woodworth qualified in the 800m race and Robin Curits in the 3200m. Sandy Smith and Cathy Correll just missed going to States.

At States Missy Woodworth placed 5th and Robin Curtis placed 9th, in their individual races. Woodworth, Mitchell, Platt, and Curtis ran the 3200m relay in 9:51.92 minutes. The girls were outstanding and deserved a lot of praise.

And so ..."Girls Track continues it's winning tradition."

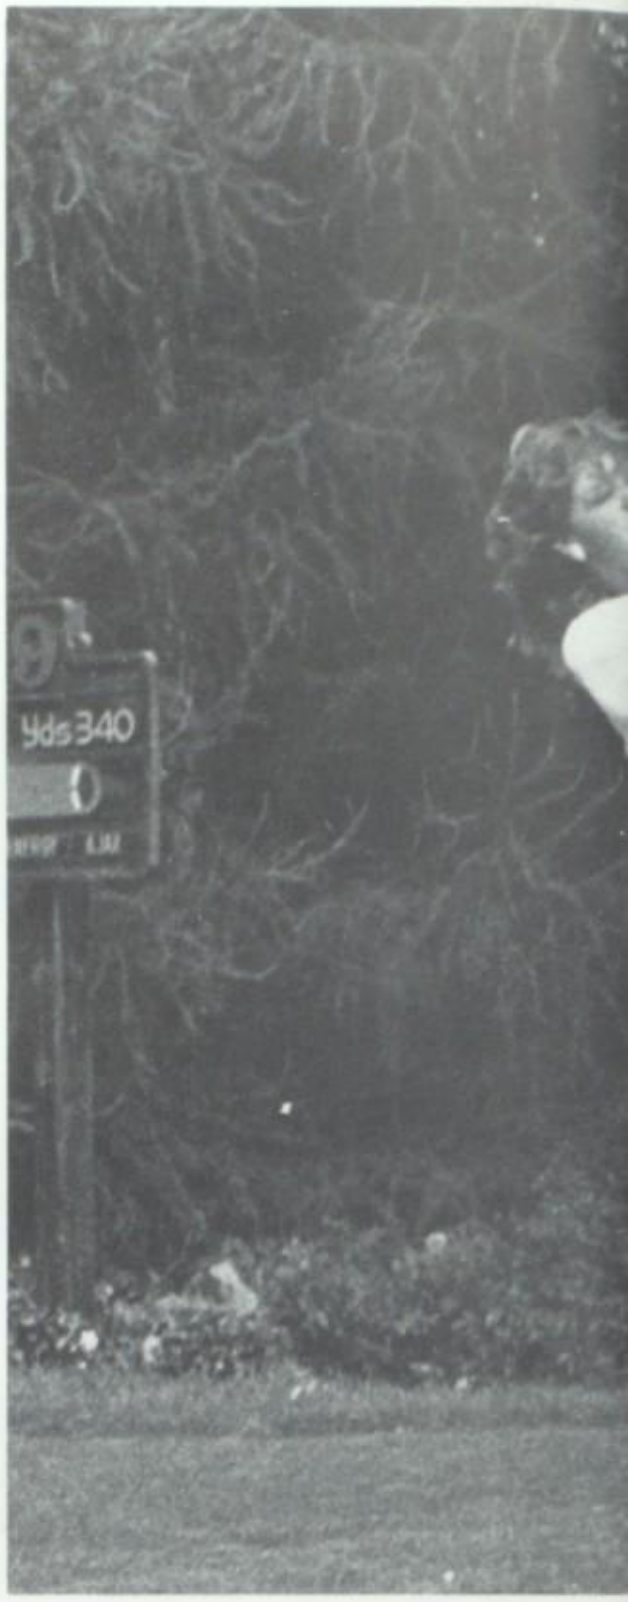
Beaver netters motto: Practice, practice and more

Practice

The Beaver Tennis Team had a tough season this year with a 2 and 8 record. They started off the season with a new coach, Mr. John Mercer. Coach Mercer did well in bringing the team together for a challenging year.

With well-playing seniors Todd Middleton, Steve Lloyd, Todd Graves, and Sue Riggs leading the team through the season, the Beavers made it to the District 10 Tournament. Of the senior players, Todd Middleton played in the number one spot, and Steve Lloyd had the best overall record on the team.

This year's returning lettermen are Wally Kennedy, Chris Hunt, Jason Rainieri, Rick Vanderwheele, and Dan Bothell. They hope to make this year even better than last.



Todd Graves demonstrates his John MacEnroe immitation. Here, he overwhelmed his opponent and scored his first point of the match.

"Golf had a good season this year," Mr. Ottaway said. Our team won 6 out of 11 matches. They took seventh place in the O' Shanter Invitational Tournament. In the Erie County League the golf team took 3rd place. Chris Fawcett, who was voted most valuable player, and Jim Clayton qualified for the finals in the District 10 Tournament.

The most outstanding achievement in 1986 for the Corry High Golfers was made by sophomore, Dianna Mitchell. She was the first girl in Corry's history to make it to States.

The golf team will be missing a lot of seniors next year. However Coach Ottoway is looking forward to watching next year's team for even a better record, with more new and interesting talents.

Second in the ECL

VOLLEYBALL

This is the first year in quite a while that a Corry Volleyball team has made it to Districts. Corry Volleyball team is proud and certainly should be. They won ten straight games before their depressing defeat by Seneca in front of the largest crowd ever at for a Corry Volleyball game. Seneca, 1986 ECL champs, were avenging the defeat earlier in the season.

Corry also placed third at Meadville in DISTRICTS. While at DISTRICTS they defeated Meadville, McDowell, Villa Maria, and were later defeated twice by Grove City to loose a spot in the STATE Competition.

This year's team was made up of senior captain Michelle Nadolny, senior co-captain Tammy Wood, juniors Cathy Correll, Ann Gavazzi, Kelli Lindsey, and Kelly Williams. While the Subs included Senior Susan Gibas, juniors Shar Baran, Loni Greer, Tammy Slye, Georgiana Roberts, and Sophmore Lori Nadolny. The team was coached by Connie Craker and Martha Freeman, who were both graduates from Corry. Miss Craker was very proud of the team. She said, "They fought hard for every win and deserved every one they got."

Junior Varsity also had a rewarding season of 16 wins and 2 losses.

The Band fromed a tunnel and shouted "Co-Hi" as the football team ran out onto the field at Seneca. "It really got us pumped," said Shawn McDonald.

A New Coach, A New System, And A New Outlook For Corry Football

A New Tradition

Our football team had a tough season this year, finishing with a record of 3-7. But it was a season of changes; a whole new coaching staff and a whole new tradition of football. It was definitely a unique season.

The new coaching staff worked extremely hard to make a team that would work. Head coach, Mark Olay, coordinated everything: practices, scout meetings, game plans, and conditioning programs. Assistant coaches for the linemen were Art Morelli, Eric Johnson, and Joe Lukac. They worked with the backs and special teams, while Chip Williams coached the receivers and defensive backs.

The season really started last June. Team conditioning practices on the track and in the weight room were on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. Then "D-day" arrived, August 12th. Players then faced a week of evening practices, a week of "trips", and another week of evenings. The practices were tough, but the team seemed to come together into a workable unit. The season really looked promising to both the team and the coaches.

The first game was against Northwestern. Last year, Corry upset the Wildcats 13-12 on their field , which gave them plenty of incentive to get revenge. Unfortunately, they did. Corry, working the ball on the ground, just couldn't put it in for six.

Things began to click in the next two clashes with Iroquois and Seneca. Both our offensive and defensive teams came together to shove the ball right down their throats.

Steve Graeca couldn't have put it in better when he said "He got CRUNCHED!"

Tom Downey had a tough night running the ball against North East But gained some good Yardage.

General McLane	30	Corry	2
Girard	3	Corry	17
Ft. LeBouef	10	Corry	3
Titusville	28	Corry	7

Most of the losses that we suffered were a result of an exceptional amount of errors.

Our best performances came against Girard and Ft. Lebouef. After having a field day with the Yellow Jackets, the Beavers gave LeBouef a run for their money. In the last E.C.L. game of the season, the Bisons were convinced that the Beavers were going to be an easy game to put them into first place. Beavers were anything but easy. As Mr. Olay explained, "It was a great defensive game. The offense moved the ball up and down the field but failed to score!"

We did have fun this season even with our record. This year of football was definitely unique. It was a year to remember. What was different this year? Just about everything. An entire new coaching staff a whole new system, and tradition of Corry football. The only two things that didn't change was our school's football spirit and the Beaver's reputation for being the hardest-hitting team in the league.

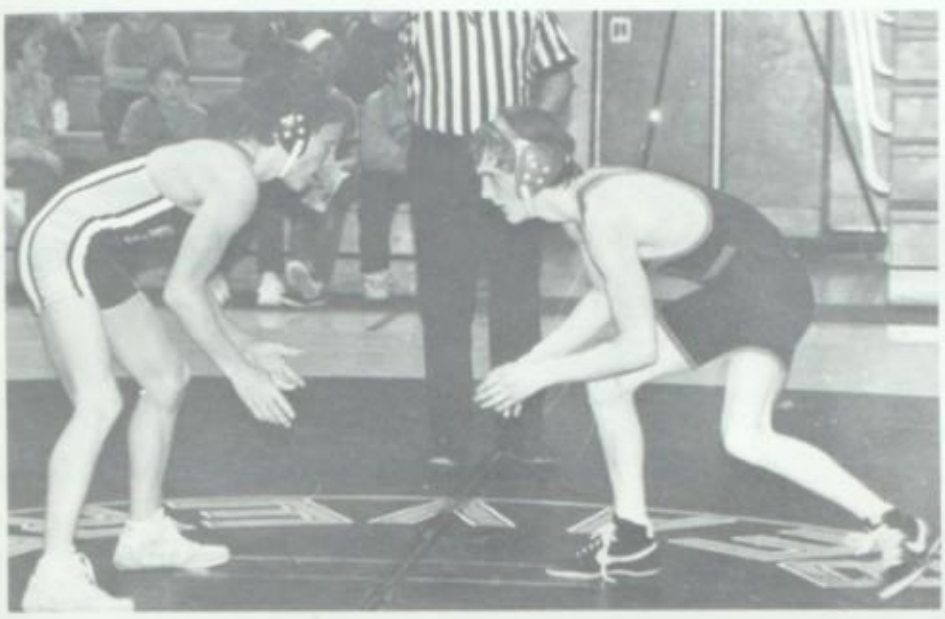
Our team must be praised for tackling the obstacles that were placed in our way. We learned a new system, getting used to a whole new coaching staff, and unifying together to make our team of mostly underclassmen work.

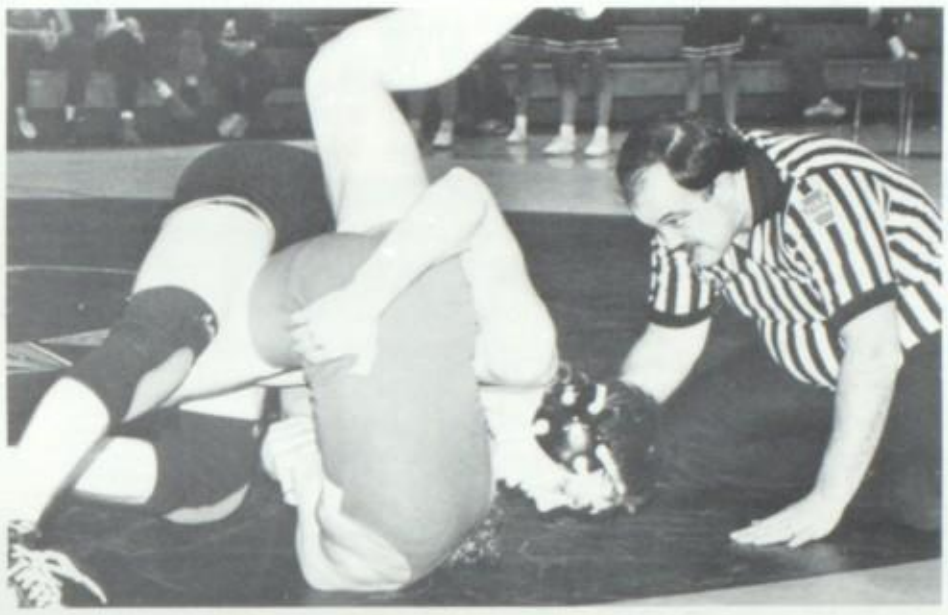
Senior Dan Mitchell turns upfield for a big gain against Ft. LeBoeuf.
Practices were tough , and linemen drills were both mentally and physically trying. Special 5 minute segments forced players to be at their best.

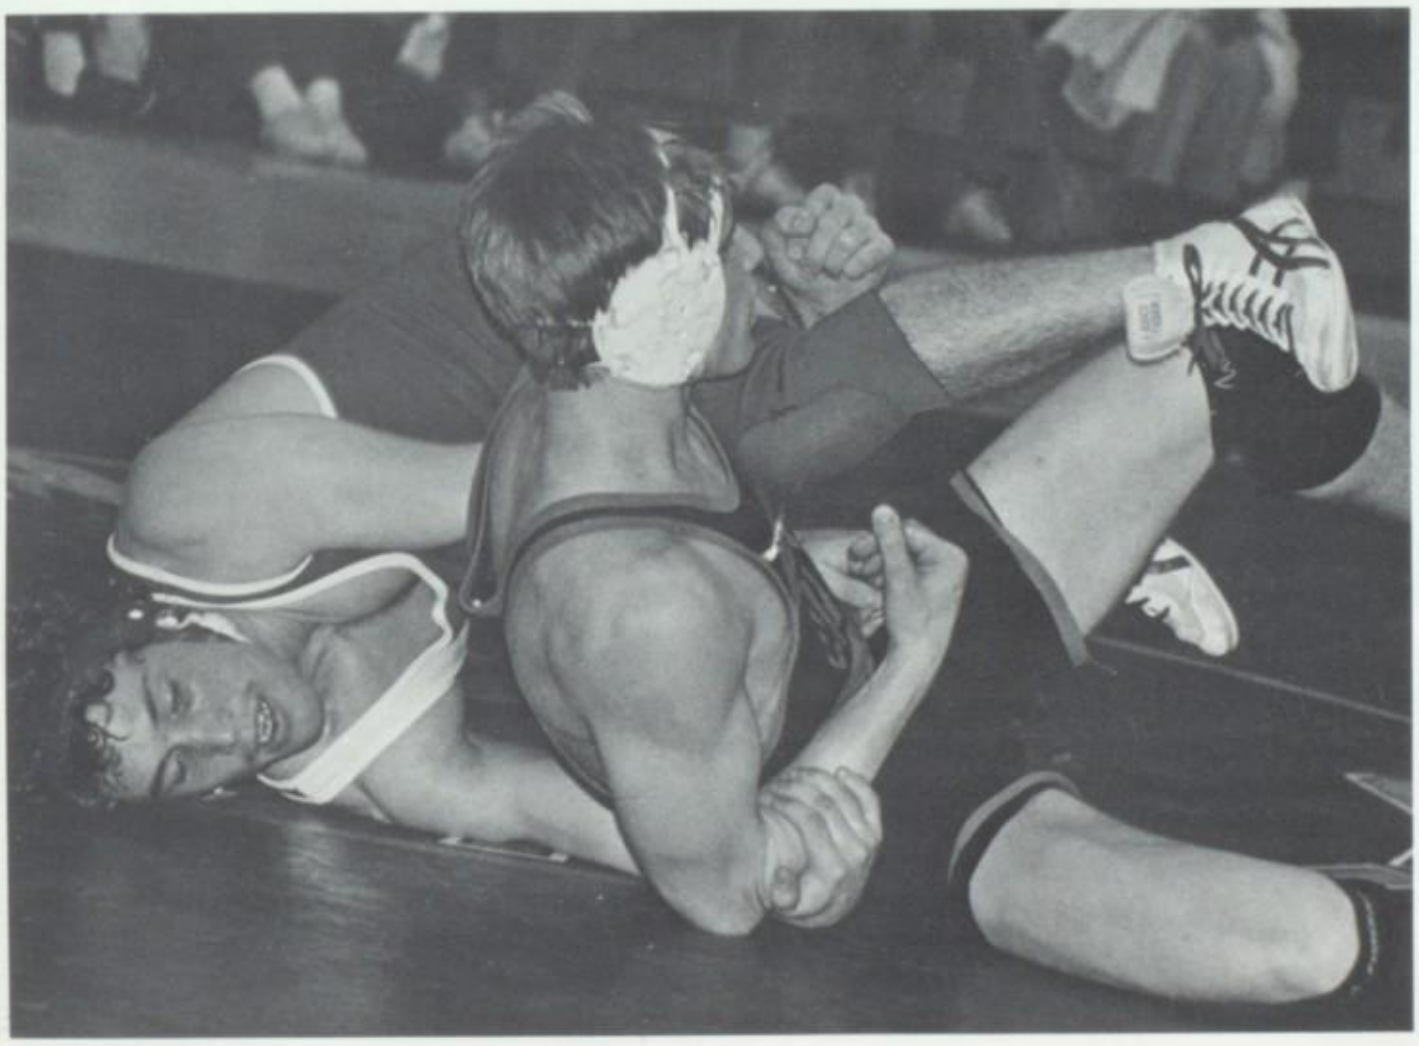
You can see the toll the Fairview game took on senior Terry Hayes. The players did their best, but failed to beat the Tigers.

Desire was an important element of each wrestler. Just by the way each wrestler ran out onto the mat, you could tell he was from Corry. Each wrestler had the drive, desire, and determination that it takes to win.

Those qualities were what it took for this year's team to capture back the E.C.L. championship. We had the title for four years in a row, with Ft. LeBoeuf appropriately ranked number two. Last year, however; Ft. LeBoeuf stole the title from us. This year under the direction of the new head coach, Larry Harrington the Beavers took back the number one title.







Bill Harrington is about ready to pin his opponent. Bill has the power and ability it takes to be and outstanding wrestler.

Jon Palmer surprised many of his opponents at 145. That is one of the toughest weight classes. Jon really did a sensational job.

Mark Frushone is about to put the finishing touches on on this reversal to put him back on top.

Matmen pin down E.C.L. Championship

Look at Us Now

At the start of the season, everyone wondered if the Corry wrestlers would be able keep the Corry Wrestlilng Tradition...To Win ! The wrestlers did that and plenty more.

The starting line-up for this years team was not one to be overlooked. Salsgiver, Stultz, Harrington, Lutton, Frushone, and Muir were all returning lettermen. They gave this year's team a strong backbone. There were no weak points in this team for their opponents to attack. After months of practice, the beaver team was ready to tear apart any team in their way.

Corry had many easy victories The lopsided scores for Corry show the overwhelming power we had against our opponents. In 15 out of 18 games Corry had a score of 31 or more points. The opponent was lucky to have 20 points. The Beaver Matmen had too much power for the other team.

The match against Ft. LeBoeuf was the most exciting of the whole season. At each weight there was a difficult bout. Each wrestler from either team was keyed up for his match against the arch rival. When all as said and done Corry had pulled it off. We beat Ft. LeBoeuf 31-28.

There was a new wrestling experience this year. Corry hosted a tri-meet against Warren and McDowell. There were two mats working at the same time. Each school had atleast one wrestler on the mat, sometimes two. The end results were Corry 54 - Warren 7 and Corry 26 - McDowell 35. That is the reason there are two different scores for Corry vs. McDowell.

Our matmen wrapped up the season at Iroquois. The bus ride home was like any other until they got to the Plaza parking lot. Firetrucks, parents, and fans were waiting there to give the champions a parade through town. The town was awakened by the screams and sirens. The parade ended at a victory celebration at the high school.

Senior Co-captain, Dennis Muir, surprised many of his larger opponents by pinning them during the first period. Dennis received a trophy at the Tool City Tournement for being the wrestler with the most pins.
Greg Lutton, also a senior co-captain, was shorter than the other guys at his weight. But his quick wit and strength was the deciding factor that left him the victor of his matches.

Chris Maryott wasted no time taking the other guy down for the count. Quick pins and tchnical falls were a strong characteristics of the whole team.

Strong underclassmen prepare for a bright future ahead

Youth Shows Promise.

The 1986 Boys Cross-Country team ran a good year with a 4-8 record. They had to work extra hard this year after losing their 1985 Varsity team, which consisted of all seniors. There were only four seniors on this year's team, Roger Migliaccio, Jim Zaphiris, Uli Wiehe, and Mark Stultz.

This year's outstanding runner was Dan Ahl who led the team in every meet. He was 8th, in the E.C.L. meet and 8th at Districts. He also became the 10th Runner on the All County Team List.

The only freshman, Robbie Migliaccio was Corry's number two man on the team, and was the only runner besides Ahl to run the Corry Course within 15 minutes.

Half of the team were sophomores. Jim McQuiston who placed well in many J.V. meets, Haven Daley who ran seventh in the Rocky Grove Invitational, Jeff Church who helped the team in the ECL and DISTRICT meet, Randy Stultz and Ira Mikesell.

Ira Mikesell, one of Corry's young and STRONG runners, had an excellent year as a sophomore.

During Dan Ahl's first year of running, he made the top ten list of Corry's BEST cross-country runners.

At the start of the dual meets, the Corry members are jockeying for position in amongst the Union City and Seneca runners.

Running on the Varsity Team, freshman Rob Migliaccio as a ran extremely well at every meet as Corry's no.2 man.

Roger Migliaccio, a senior, has been a valuable asset to Corry's team since he was a freshman. He helps gain many points for the team through the meets.

Running his first year of cross-country, Uli Wiehe performed extremely well.

"This year's team was inexperienced but each individual gave his best at every meet. As the boys get more experience they will develop into a noteworthy team."

Girls Rule District X

11th at States

Hard Practice Pays-off

The girls' cross-country team had an outstanding season. They went to STATES with all underclassmen. The team had a fantastic season with a 12-1 record. The team's best meet was the Titusville Relays. We were defending champions. The course was 2 1/2 miles long. Sandy Platt ran the fastest time ever run by a girl on that course (14:20 minutes). Their time was 77:47 minutes. The girls came out on top again.

One of the toughest meets of the season was against North East and General McLane. All of these teams had a chance at this meet each team walked away with one win and one loss. Corry girls ran a most productive race at counties. The girls missed being County Champions by 2 points. The course was 3.1 miles long. We had three all COUNTY runners: Platt first, Robin Curtis third, and Kathleen Migliaccio seventh.

The girls came home from Penn State (BEHREND) as DISTRICT CHAMPIONS. There were three all DISTRICT runners. This was the team's best meet all year with Curtis, Platt, Migliaccio taking 1,3, and 7 respectively.

STATES: PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY. States was really exciting and a great experience for everyone. It was ran on the Blue Golf Course. Corry had finished eleventh out of twenty-three teams. Platt was only 3 runners from being named All State. Next year, the team's goal is to go to states again.

Kathleen Migliaccio finishes strong at home. She had a GREAT year finishing seventh at counties and at districts.

READY...SET...GO!!! The girls are getting ready to start another home victory.

Varsity Row 1- Michelle Nadolny, Lori Nadolny, Missy Woodworth, Lee Bailey, Margie Fuchs Row 2- Dori Alsdorf, Keri Root, Brenda Williams, Michelle Watrous, Kelly Frisina, Coach Reed.

For the first time in four years, the Corry Girls Varsity Basketball had a strong team. Four twelth grade girls provided a good base of experience and ability. Missy Woodworth was a good defensive player She also improved her shooting ability over the lastyear and was definitely an offensive force in many of the teams games.

Michele Nadolny was another steadily improving senior starter. Although a short forward in the Erie County League, Michele often outrebounded defended taller opponents. She was also assigned the difficult in-bounder position and did good.

Kelly Frisina often provided good rebounding strength to the small Corry squad and intercepted passes in the Beaverettes full court press. She did pass the 600 career points mark early in the season and now ranks as Corry's 5th highest all time girls' scorer.

Margie Fuchs was the fourth senior starter. She defended the team's stronger players and although outmatched in size, she was able able to handle her opponent. Her best offensive games were against Harborcreek (16 pts.) and Iroquios (18 pts.).

Lee Bailey was constantly the team's fifth player and improved her ball handling and passing skills as the season progressed. This was Lee's first year playing at the varsity level. She kept a cool head and contributed a consistant, dependable performance.

Lori Nadolny, Dori Alsdorf, Brenda Williams and Keri Root gave the varsity girls excellent bench strength. Lori and Dori were replacements as guards, while Brenda and Keri replaced at forward.

The varsity team improved and played competitively in all games except their contests against North East. With the excellent players moving up next year from the junior varsity, the 1987-88 season should show continued progress for the Lady Beavers.

There's a new-found excitement on the basketball court at Corry High School. This year the Girls' JV team surprised many people with their season. Other coaches have called Coach Nalepa the "Miracle Worker." The quintet of Sophomores: B. Williams, D. Alsdorf, K. Root, and L. Nadolny and Freshman, W. Rasey sparked the young hoopsters to success. Additional fire was added by D. Mitchell, M. Miller and L. Vinca off the bench.

The season was packed with many emotional contests. Five cames have been won by 4 points of less. Many of their wins were comebacks. There are a number of talented players, but no single person dominated the play. Everyone had a share of the responsibility in the play. That's what made them so successful.

If the way these girls represented Corry High School this year is any indication, there will be another sport on the list of winning traditions.

WE TAKE TIME TO LISTEN...
TIME TO HELP!

From the Corrian Yearbook Staff of '86-'87 we thank the businesses of Corry and the surrounding areas for their support.

The Corrian ad campaign was extremely successful this year. Ten more pages were added to the ad section with the addition of fifteen newly acquired sponsors. The section was improved through the use of more photos and the senior ads.

DENNIS
MCELDOWNEY

Those we love remain within us,
for love itself lives on.
And cherished memories never fade,
because a loved one's gone.

So Dennis can never be more than a thought apart,
For as long as there are memories,
he'll live on in our hearts.

Michelle McEldowney

"In Closing, We Would Like To Note That" . . .

The Feeling Continues in the "Together We Can Make It Happen" production put on by the Sociology and Psychology classes put on in January.

Corry High was the center stage for many important events this year, including the District Jazz Band Ensemble.

SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT

Picture 3-Many students excel in the hands-on work of Corry High's industrial arts program.
Picture 2-Everyone likes to clown around a little, but there is no excuse for senior Mark Skuse's upside-down right akward behavior.
Picture 4-Probably no one around gets into their gym classes like Corry students. For instance, the guys especially enjoy a "Nice" game of floor hockey; here, Jason Fisk gives a body check to Randy Zuendel, who in turn high sticks him.
Picture 1-The students at Corry are all something special. One prime example is junior Amy Lang.

The Last Page . . .

What's so special about this year's Corrian? Well, let's start with the cover. It's certainly the best one in the whole county. Why? It alone is worth $17.50. And how about the fancy endsheets? The theme was carried out more thoroughly this year, as were the section designs. Better layouts, more copy and two-page dividers were just a few of the book's improvements. One sad note though (or is it?), a couple of traditions were broken this year. Homeroom photos , twenty years from now, and the dedication were omited. But on the other hand, a more important tradition was established. This is a tradition of the best book yet every year from now on. Sure, there was planned a whole lot more to go into THIS year's Corrian, but because of a few unsaid difficulties, some ideas never materialized. Yet there are still plenty of good aspects about it.

There is a whole lot of pure effort that goes unpraised or even unnoticed. The 7th period did all the layouts, computer work, editing, planning, and picture taking. The "Night Crew" helpes with copy writing.

Ad campaigning, working 9-5 the last Saturday before the deadline on Monday, having meetings that few attended, and trying to locate the film that was sent out sometime, to some place, by someone that had something on it. These were obstacles that Corrian Staffers had to overcome to provide an annual that encapsuled the year of Corry achievement and pride of the students. But when asked if, in the end, it was all worth it, Everyone to some extent agreed that it was.

We thought it might be interesting to know of what , how, and where this year's book was made. First of all, 975 volumes were published at Jostens Printing and Publishing Division in State College, Pennsylvania. The cover was custom made with smoke 491 material color, and Black 326 and orange silkscreen. The binding was sewn, and the 228 pages were an enamel gloss paper.

Picture 1-In addition to taking pride in all of our extra-curricular activities, Corry High takes a special pride in their academic studies.(Believe it or not).

Picture 2-As a final word suitable for the tag on a Salada tea bag, We must picture ourselves as well as we picture others. In Corry's case, there is a lot to see in that picture.
